Pursuant to 26 N.N.C. § 101 (A), the Toadlena/Two Grey Hills Chapter (hereafter “Chapter”) is mandated to formulate, implement, and operate Personnel Management Policies and Procedures to ensure accountability. Accordingly, the Chapter has developed policies and procedures for the Five Management Systems consistent with applicable Navajo Nation Law.

A. Purpose

These policies are designed to assist Chapter Managers to deal consistently with human resources issues and to outline the rights, benefits, and what is expected of Chapter administrative employees.

1. Role of the Chapter Manager

The Chapter Manager, at times in consultation with the Chapter Officials, determines jobs to be performed, offers employment, and compensates employees for the work performed.

2. Role of Chapter Manager

Chapter Managers are responsible for utilizing and applying the personnel policies consistently in dealing with human resources issues. They are encouraged to seek advice from Department of Personnel Management and Department of Justice (or legal counsel) on the interpretation of the Personnel Policies Manual and in addressing employment issues. Chapter Managers are expected to provide leadership in implementing the policies and to set a positive example for employees.

3. Role of the Employee

Employees shall read, understand, and comply with policies and procedures that affect or apply to their employment.

4. Role of the Department of Personnel Management and Legal Counsel

The Chapter Manager shall develop and implement procedures, as necessary, consistent with the policies contained in this manual. Department of Personnel Management or legal counsel (private or the Department of Justice) may also provide guidance to Chapter Managers on the interpretation and intent of the manual and assist in addressing employment issues.

B. Application

These Personnel Policies apply to all Chapter employees, regardless of funding source or employment status, except where they are specifically excluded. These policies do not create an employment contract by implication and the rights and privileges granted employees are only those specifically stated.

C. Exceptions

1. Certain categories of employees may be affected by policies and regulations that may take precedence or may supplement these policies.
2. To the extent that the Chapter is required to develop policies or procedures that take precedence over or supplement this manual, they shall be reviewed and approved, if necessary, by the Department of Justice (or private legal counsel) prior to implementation by the Chapter.

Whenever necessary, the Chapter may offer preference in employment to other applicants based on funding source requirements. However, in no case may this preference supersede Navajo preference.

D. Second or Outside Employment

1. Full-time employment with the Chapter shall generally be the sole employment of any employee. However, it is recognized that personal situations do occur that might make it necessary for employees to seek supplementary employment.
2. A Chapter employee shall not engage in outside or self-employment if such outside or self-employment creates a conflict of interest. A conflict of interest is defined as a real or seeming incompatibility between one's private interests and one's public or fiduciary duties.

3. A Chapter employee who secures outside or self-employment that creates a conflict of interest may be subject to dismissal.
4. A Chapter employee may not concurrently hold two full-time positions with the Chapter and the Nation.

7. Chapter Managers are responsible for determining whether additional employment adversely affects job performance with the Chapter.
8. Honoraria and/or compensation received for occasional seminars, speeches, or presentations are not deemed to be second or outside employment and are not subject to these provisions.

E. Hiring of Relatives

1. To promote consistency and equity in the treatment of all Chapter employees, to prevent breaches in confidentiality, to prevent improper influences in employment and to prevent the perception of favoritism, the Chapter will not employ, in any position, the immediate relatives of current employees or elected officials if:
 - a. one is directly supervising the other on a regular basis or
 - b. there is potential for creating an adverse effect on supervision, security, or morale, or the potential for a conflict of interest.
2. For purposes of this policy, the term "relative" is defined as an individual who is related by blood or marriage to the employee as a father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister, grandmother, grandfather, uncle, aunt, cousin, nephew, niece, husband, wife, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, stepfather, stepmother, stepson, stepdaughter, stepsister, stepbrother, half brother or half sister.
3. If Chapter employees become related after employment and a conflict such as described in the above paragraph is created; or, if a re-organization creates such a conflict, 90 calendar days will be allowed to resolve the matter voluntarily or by transfer of one of the Chapter employees. If this is not possible, the Chapter employee with the most recent date of continuous employment will be released.

4. Employees, Chapter officials, members of the Navajo Nation Council, or other committees capable of influencing hiring, evaluation, or other employee actions, and who are related to employees covered by these policies, shall refrain from influencing all actions having to do with such relatives.
5. All applicants for positions with the Chapter shall indicate on the official application form whether they are related to any employee. This information will be used to determine possible conflicts of interest involving the position.

IV. RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION

A. Policy

In general, the Chapter's employment process, which is carried out by the Chapter Manager in consultation and with the approval of the Chapter officials, will ensure competitive practices in recruitment, selection, and placement of qualified applicants based on the applicant's knowledge, skills, abilities, and overall qualifications for employment with the Chapter. The Chapter's employment process shall comply with applicable laws of the Navajo Nation.

2. Chapter requests for job vacancies that are included on the weekly vacancy listing published by Department of Personnel Management are to be submitted on Job Vacancy Announcement forms complete with all required information and signatures to Department of Personnel Management.
3. The Chapter may collect all responses to a vacancy published on the weekly job vacancy listing by the Department of Personnel Management from the Department and then make its decision in accordance with these personnel policies. This is only if the Chapter has elected to post a vacancy through the Department of Personnel Management.
4. Administrative Employees of the Chapter shall retain their positions after the Chapter's transition to Local Governance Act certification. The Chapter's Administrative Employees shall resign as Navajo Nation employees only to transition into the same positions as Chapter employees. The Employees shall amicably resign with the understanding that they will be reconstituted as Chapter Administrative employees the following work-day. This shall not be placed within the Employee's permanent employment file as an adverse action.

The Chapter may elect to advertise, interview and re-hire for these Administrative Employee positions. However, it should be understood that this is extremely inefficient and that the Chapter's administrative functions will cease to be performed for the time period the Chapter takes to re-hire administrative employees. The Chapter may elect to do this, but it is discouraged.

D. Applications for Employment

1. Chapter employment application forms may be made available at the Chapter or online. The Chapter shall also accept standard Navajo Nation applications for employment that are from the Department of Personnel Management, which may be downloaded from the website at www.nndpm.navajo.org. 5. Any misrepresentations, falsifications, or material omissions in any of this information or any other materials used in the application process, or information offered during the interviews, may result in the exclusion of the individual from further consideration for employment for that position; or if the person has been hired, termination of employment.

E. Interview Expenses

1. An applicant interviewed for a key position may be reimbursed for interview expenses subject to the Chapter's availability of funds. The Chapter Manager will be responsible for designating key positions jointly with the Chapter Officials.

2. Physical Qualifications

A person selected shall possess and maintain the minimum physical qualifications necessary to perform essential duties of the position. The Chapter Manager, in consultation with the Chapter Officials, shall designate those positions for which medical examinations shall be required prior to employment. Whenever the Chapter Manager, in consultation with the Chapter Officials and legal counsel (private or the Department of Justice), has reason to believe that an employee's health is adversely affecting his/her job performance, the employee may be required to undergo a medical examination by a licensed physician. The results shall be used to determine continued employment.

- b. Applicants who have been convicted of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or a felony or who enter pleas of guilty or no contest shall not be eligible to be considered for employment for a period of at least three years following completion of sentence. The number of years may be controlled by other standards if the position is funded pursuant to a grant or contract.

5. Work and Education Reference Checks

To verify information about an applicant's knowledge, skills, abilities, character, and other qualifications that will be important to successful performance in a new position, job-related inquiries may be made of current and former supervisors and other persons who can supply relevant information. Information provided by an applicant to obtain employment, which later proves false, shall be grounds for termination.

I. Offer of Employment

1. The authority to offer employment is vested in the Chapter Manager, after consultation and approval by Chapter Officials.
2. The offer of employment will be extended by the Chapter Manager to the individual selected for the job if the selection is consistent with existing policies and criteria established for the job.
3. The Chapter Manager shall also approve the proposed pay rate before an offer of employment is made to an applicant.
4. The Chapter Manager shall not offer or approve employment if selection was done contrary to these Personnel Policies or Navajo Nation law.

J. Moving Expenses

Employment status varies with the position and conditions of employment. Chapter Managers, working jointly with the Chapter Officials (and review/advice from private legal counsel or the Department of Justice) shall ensure that employees are properly designated.

A. The Navajo Nation has six categories of employment status, of which the Chapter has elected to adhere to five:

1. Regular full-time

Employees who are hired to work the regularly established 40-hour workweek and who remain employed full-time upon completion of the introductory period.

2. Regular part-time

Employees who work less than the regularly scheduled 40-hour workweek but not less than 20 hours per week and who remain employed part-time upon completion of the introductory period.

3. Seasonal

Employees who work less than one year on a full or part-time basis due to the nature of the position and/or funding level. Seasonal employment is usually applicable to jobs that occur on an intermittent or seasonal basis.

4. Temporary

- a. Temporary employees are those who are hired as interim replacements or to supplement the work force, or to assist in the completion of a specific project.
- b. Employment of a temporary to fill a vacant regular status position is limited to a maximum of six consecutive months in a program's fiscal year.
- c. Employment of a temporary in a 1200 account may be extended as necessary, except that if a temporary is employed continuously for one year, the program must justify maintaining the position as temporary or budget the position as regular status.
- d. Employment of a temporary beyond any initially stated period does not in any way imply a change in employment status. Temporary employees retain that status unless and until notified of a change.
- e. While temporary employees receive mandated benefits (such as workers' compensation insurance and Social Security), they are ineligible for Navajo Nation benefit programs including annual and sick leave accrual.

5. Volunteers

Persons who offer and provide unpaid assistance or services to the Navajo Nation for a specified time period. Supervisors must arrange for appropriate coverage under workers' compensation.

B. Introductory Period

The Introductory Period is intended to give employees the opportunity to demonstrate the capability to perform assigned job duties at a satisfactory level of performance and to determine whether the position meets their expectations. The Chapter uses this period to evaluate employee capabilities, work habits, and overall performance. The Table of Penalties (Section XIII below) does not apply during the Introductory period.

1. Immediate supervisors will provide performance standards for successful completion of the introductory period.
2. These policies do not apply to temporary employees.

3. The three types of introductory periods are:

a. 90-day Introductory Period

All new employees, hired in a regular or seasonal position will work on an introductory basis for the first 90 calendar days after their date of hire. The introductory period shall begin on the first day of employment and end at the end of the work day on the 90th calendar day. For those employees who work on a Monday through Friday tour of duty and the 90th day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the 90th day will carry over to the next working business day. A regular status employee will be subject to only one new employee introductory period during any continuous term of employment.

b. Supervisory Introductory Period

A Chapter employee promoted or transferred to a higher level supervisory position, will be subject to a supervisory introductory period of 90 calendar days. An employee promoted or transferred to a supervisory position continues to utilize leave benefits during the supervisory introductory period.

4. Periods of temporary employment cannot be used to satisfy the introductory period requirement. Leave benefits accumulate but cannot be used during the 90-day introductory period.

5. During the introductory period, new employees are eligible for those benefits required by law, such as workers' compensation and Social Security. After obtaining regular status, employees may also be eligible for other Chapter and Navajo Nation provided benefits, subject to the terms and conditions of each benefits program.

6. Unsatisfactory Performance or Conduct

a. If, during the 90-day introductory period, the employee's performance or conduct is found to be unsatisfactory, the immediate supervisor may terminate the employee for just cause, provided that the employee is given contemporaneous written notification citing the reason(s) for the termination.

b. An employee terminated during any introductory period has no rights to grievance.

c. Termination of new employees within the introductory period voids accrued annual and sick leave. Supervisory and transferred employees will receive payment for all accrued annual leave.

7. Failure to Complete Supervisory Introductory Period

- a. Employees failing to successfully complete their supervisory introductory period will be returned to their previous position, if it is available, at their prior rate of pay. If the previous position is not available, they will be considered for a comparable position. If a comparable position is not available, they will be laid off and placed on preferential status for reemployment.
- b. Employees failing to satisfactorily complete a supervisory introductory period will not be considered for another supervisory position for a period of 12 months. During the supervisory introductory period, an employee has no rights to grievance.

8. If any introductory period is interrupted by an employee's extended absence due to medical reasons, the introductory period may be extended the number of calendar days the employee was absent.

9. Conversion to Regular Status

- a. When an employee satisfactorily completes an introductory period, the immediate supervisor is required to submit a performance appraisal for him/her to the Chapter (either Chapter Manager or the Chapter's file with notice to the Chapter Officials) along with the personnel action form. This will convert the employee's introductory status to regular status.
- b. If the immediate supervisor fails to notify, in writing, the employee and the Chapter Manager or Chapter Officials of the conversion status at the end of any introductory period, the Chapter Officials are authorized to initiate action to convert the employee to regular status.

10. Reemployment after Break in Service

Former employees rehired after any break in service, are considered new employees and will be subject to another introductory period regardless of a previous completion. The exceptions are those reemployed after a layoff. They are eligible for reinstatement for a period of six months after layoff.

C. New Employee Orientation

- 1. New employees are required to attend an employee orientation within 90 calendar days of employment date. All supervisors shall allow new employees to attend the orientation as scheduled.

2. The new employee orientation shall include an overview of general Chapter operating policies and procedures, employee benefits, and an overview of the Chapter and Navajo Nation organizational structures, and reporting relationships.
3. All employees are required to read and affirm in writing that they are familiar with this Personnel Policies Manual.

Recognizing their sacrifice, Navajo Veterans' Preference recognizes the economic loss suffered by citizens who have served their country in uniform, restores Veterans to a favorable competitive position for Chapter employment and acknowledges the larger obligation owed to disabled Veterans.

Eligible Veterans receive preference for initial employment and a higher retention standing in the event of layoffs. However, the Veterans' preference does not guarantee the Veteran a job, nor does it give Veterans preference in internal personnel actions such as promotion, transfer, reassignment and reinstatement.

B. A Veteran discharged from the U.S. Armed Forces or the National Guard or Reserve under honorable conditions following more than 180 calendar days of active duty shall be given preference in employment.

1. Preference in employment on the initial hire and retention for those Veterans who were honorably discharged or the spouses of Veterans shall be provided in the following order:

i. Certification from DOD or Military Branches that the Veteran is totally and permanently disabled or documentation certifying the service-connected death of the Veteran.

ii. Evidence of marriage to the Veteran.

2. Preference is given at each step of the employment consideration process to preference eligible applicants, provided such individual possesses the minimum qualifications necessary to perform the duties of the position. Qualified Veterans receive the same level of preference despite disability status.
3. All qualified eligible Veterans must be granted an interview.
4. If the best qualified applicant, including a preference eligible Veteran are equally qualified, and no further evaluation occurs, the Veteran must be given selection preference. If there is a non-Veteran who is the best qualified for a position, the non-Veteran could be employed if an eligible Veteran does not possess the same level of qualifications. In such cases, reasons why and approval by the Chapter Manager is required prior to any offer of employment. Documentation of the hiring decision is paramount. In cases where the Veteran is not selected, the Chapter Manager must be able to justify why the Veteran was not selected.
5. It is the Chapter Manager and Administrative Assistant's responsibility to ensure that a letter of non-selection is sent to all applicants, including Veterans, who were interviewed but not selected for a position.
